As a client you have the right to access your personal data and in case of inaccurate data make sure we change or remove these data. This will be done within 30 working days upon receiving your written request.

Cookie Policy:

Our website uses cookies. Below you will find all the information on the use of cookies at the website www.obrastechnology.com.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small files that our website www.obrastechnology.com places on our computer or mobile device when you visit our website. Cookies help our website to, for example, recognize your device, when you visit us again. We use the term "cookies" in this policy to refer to all files that collect information on our website. Our cookies do not collect information that identifies you on an individual level.

improve and expand your business.

At any time, you can decide to be notified of our cookies and block our cookies. If you block our cookies, you may experience difficulty to navigate on our website.

What are cookies for?

Our cookies are used to help determine the usefulness, interest, and number of uses on our website. This helps us to improve our website. We think it is important to help our website visitors with more efficient browsing, faster navigation and by eliminating the need to repeatedly enter the same information.

What kind of cookies do we use?

We use different types of cookies:

Essential Cookies – We use cookies that are essential to access specific areas of our website. Without these cookies we cannot guarantee access to these areas of our website.

Analytic cookies – We use these cookies to analyze how visitors use our website. Doing this, we can monitor the website performance and improve the user experience.

The cookies we use on our website are:

Session cookies – These are temporary and remain in your internet browser until you leave the website www.obrastechnology.com. The information obtained allows us to identify problems during the session and provide a better browsing experience.

Permanent cookies – These are stored in your internet browser on your device (PC, mobile and tablet). These cookies are used to recognize you when you visit our website www.obrastechnology.com again. These cookies help you navigate on our website according to your preference and allow us to give you a more personalized service. You can delete these “permanent” cookies by emptying your browser history, after each session.

Can the use of cookies be blocked?

Yes, no worries. After you agree with the use of cookies on our website, you can always disable (some or all) the cookies. We inform you that by turning off cookies, parts of our site may not function the way we intend it.
